9/11 REMEMBRANCE

On this day, we honor the lives lost and the heroes who rose on September 11, 2001. We remember the strength, unity, and resilience that followed. Whether you're on the trails or at home, we hope you take a moment to reflect on what we were then and pay tribute.

"All gave some. Some gave all."

AUTUMN IS TIPTOEING IN

The calendar says fall, even if the temps still feel like summer in the afternoon. You might spot a few golden leaves along the trail, but for now, it's dry, dusty, and perfect for long rides. Enjoy the grip while it lasts—mud season will be here soon enough.

TIP OF THE DAY

Happy National Chocolate Milkshake Day! September 12 is the perfect excuse to indulge in one of the most iconic sweet treats around.

Whether you like yours thick and rich, topped with whipped cream, or blended with extras like peanut butter, Oreos, or espresso—today's all about celebrating the creamy, chocolatey goodness that's been a diner staple for nearly a century.

FUN WAYS TO CELEBRATE:

DIY Shake: Blend chocolate ice cream, milk, and a splash of chocolate syrup. Bonus points for toppings!

Local Treat: Swing by your favorite ice cream shop or diner and ask for their best chocolate shake.

Trailrider Twist: After a dusty ride, cool down with a frosty shake—because chocolate tastes even better after adventure.

Chocolate milkshakes first gained popularity in the 1920s, and they've never gone out of style. So go ahead—sip, slurp, and celebrate!
